

Michele St. Julien is an associate in Cohen & Gresser's New York office and a member of the firm's Litigation & Arbitration and White Collar Defense & Regulation practice groups.

Michele's practice focuses on complex commercial litigation and internal and government investigations. She has experience litigating in both state and federal courts, including performing detailed legal research and drafting memoranda and dispositive motions. Michele also has experience preparing presentations and readying key witnesses for testimony in internal investigations.

Prior to joining Cohen & Gresser, Michele was a litigation associate at Willkie Farr & Gallagher, where she had a secondment at the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc. She also worked as a strategic content manager at Color of Change and was a public affairs fellow at Coro Fellows Program.

Michele is a graduate of the University of Virginia School of Law, where she participated on the editorial board of The Virginia Journal of Social Policy and the Law. She earned a B.A., magna cum laude, in Sociology from Dickinson College, where she was a Posse fellow.

Michele St. Julien
Associate, New York

+1 212 324 3520
mstjulien@cohengresser.com

Practice Areas

Litigation and Arbitration, White Collar
Defense and Regulation

Education

University of Virginia School of Law (J.D., 2020); Dickinson College (B.A., magna cum laude, 2014)

Bar Admissions

New York State